

Recovery Coordination Program

Education and Employment Initiative (E2I) Presents...

Virtual Education Fair: Navigating College and Educational Resources

November 17, 2021 | 1:00 – 3:30 PM (ET)

U.S. Department of Defense, Defense Health Agency Recovery Coordination Program E2I, is hosting a virtual educational resource fair for Recovering Service Members to learn more about the path to the GI Bill/Yellow Ribbon programs, Chapter 31 and other educational opportunities with veteran programs, colleges, universities and vocational training for transitioning from active duty service.

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER FOR EVENT

*Eventbrite may not work optimally on government issued computers. If you have trouble accessing the link, please use a personal device. Please ensure you are using the latest updated version of Zoom which offers enhanced access when navigating the education fair ****

Keynote Presentation by Ms. Quandrea Patterson - VA Benefits Advisor (Maximize your GI Bill Benefits!)

Overview of GI Bill Benefits

GI Bill General Eligibility Requirements

Tools and Resources That Can Provide Support

Identify Personalized Career Planning and Guidance Services and Eligibility Requirements

Recognize Post-9/11 GI Bill Eligibility Requirements, Benefit Components and Application Methods

Explain the Purpose of the GI Bill Comparison Tool

Recognize Transfer of Entitlement (TOE) Eligibility Requirements and Application Method

